Juror: Robert Hunter

Robert Hunter, a visual artist and retired Aberdeen High School art teacher, lives along the shores of Southern Puget Sound near Olympia, WA. Within this beautiful environment he paints daily and creates mixed media pieces. His work has been shown in galleries from the Skagit Valley to Seattle, and more recently, the Art House Gallery and The Artists' Gallery in Olympia. Hunter's work has been heavily influenced by the Abstract Expressionists, in particular Northwest artists Paul Horiuchi, Guy Anderson and Robert Sterling. His mixed media pieces combine found materials as well as various papers, where the emphasis has been on color, form and texture. His work is in private collections throughout the Northwest as well as internationally.
