

HARBOR Art Guild

501 (C) 3 non-profit - 200 W. Market St., Aberdeen, WA 98520

Harbor Art Guild thanks Jan Swan for her outstanding job as editor of the Harbor Arts Newsletter. She resigned recently from this position and will be sadly missed. Rick Woods is the new editor, Nancy Farrar/Coughlin continues as co-editor. Rick: "I have stepped up to be the editor of the newsletter. I've been the managing editor and layout guy for seven different publications, including a tabloid monthly arts paper, since my first in 1983. I don't intend to make any huge changes, just do my best to fill this newsletter with useful, interesting, and accurate items and features."

January 31, 2025 Winter edition

Nancy Farrar Coughlin offers this Valentine to us all.

SCCC Art Exhibit
March 19th 1000-1430

Stafford Creek Corrections Center is hosting another Art Exhibit for the incarcerated individuals here at Stafford Creek in Grays Harbor WA on March 19th from 10 am - 2:30 pm. There are many talented individuals that want to share their art galleries to you throughout the years of being incarcerated and how they learned to draw and create their pieces. If you are interested in attending, please reach out to Kelsea linker at: kelsea.linker@doc1.wa.gov
Please inquire by February 1, 2025.

Stafford Creek Corrections Center celebrates the work of talented incarcerated artists March 19, 10 - 2:30 pm.

RSVP REQUIRED BY EMAIL

To Attend preregister by February 1, at kelsea.linker@doc1.wa.gov, prison visit coordination.

Show up for these amazing artists who need community and support. Their work is phenomenal, guaranteed you will enjoy the show.

New Guild Officers take their places

Nancy Eichenberger is the new Harbor Art Guild president, taking over that position from Doug Orr, who sadly resigned due to conflicts with his position as mayor.

Terry Hosford has stepped up as vice president. Kris Jenott has retired from her position as Secretary of Harbor Art Guild due to personal reasons. She did an outstanding job and will be missed for her positive/happy attitude. Tracey Hartje volunteered to take over as Secretary. Tracey is very qualified and will have the full support of the guild in her transition. Brenda Woods continues as Treasurer.

Look for new Membership update

New online payments to be added!

The Harbor Art Guild is working to improve membership payment online. An email will be sent out soon to notify you of this change.

Custom framed art by Donn Angel, framing by Whisperwood Custom Framing

See Elton Bennett serigraphs in the gallery at Whisperwood Custom Framing Studio

Alders in Snow by Pam Heward, framing by Whisperwood Custom Framing

Whisperwood Custom Framing Studio opens in new Montesano location

Marisa Salizar, owner of Whisperwood Custom Framing Studio, 633 E. Pioneer Ave., Montesano, opens her new location with a Grand Opening on Friday, January 31, 6-9 pm. While custom framing is her main business, she also provides gallery space. This new gallery features local artists' work, and the gallery hosts a room featuring serigraphs by Elton Bennett, a historically well-known local artist.

ghOST received LTAC advertising funds

Grays Harbor Open Studio Tours (ghOST) received an LTAC grant from the City of Aberdeen for advertising. The ghOST committee invites artists to welcome visitors at their studios or combined locations June 21, 22. Notifications will be sent out soon. If you would like to participate please email contact@ghostproject.art. This will also be the days of World Music Day in downtown Aberdeen.

Join Harbor Art Guild's monthly Artists Play Day!

Bring your beads, your paints, your pencils and projects. Join other artists for an art-making gathering. Join us for the Harbor Art Guild's monthly 'Artist's Play Day!' the last Friday of each month from 2-4 PM at the Aberdeen Art Center, this is a great opportunity to connect with fellow artists and dedicate two focused hours to creating and working on your projects. This event serves as a fundraiser for the Guild: we'll pass the basket for contributions, with half supporting the Art Center for use of the space and half benefiting the Guild. Bring your own supplies, and let's make art together!